Atmiya University (AU) recognizes its employees as its most valuable assets and is dedicated to providing ample opportunities for showcasing their potential. In alignment with UGC guidelines, AU has implemented a comprehensive Annual Appraisal System for self-assessment, combining a holistic overview with objective-based performance evaluation.

Performance Appraisal Framework

AU's appraisal system ensures that individual contributions align with the institution's strategic goals while fostering personal and professional development. The evaluation framework structured to assess teaching and non-teaching staff annually, from July to June, based on key performance indicators.

Teaching Staff: Evaluations emphasize parameters such as teaching effectiveness, professional development, student feedback, research output, and notable achievements.

Non-Teaching Staff: Performance assessed using criteria such as punctuality, discipline, efficiency, proactivity, teamwork, procedural adherence, and trustworthiness.

In addition, the university observes to the Career Advancement Scheme (CAS) for promotions, ensuring transparent and merit-based growth opportunities.

A notable example of AU's commitment to career development is the promotion of support staff to clerical roles, highlighting the institution's inclusive approach to employee progression.
