Re: Letter of Appreciation

Dear Dr. Rajeshri Patel,

It was great privilege and honor to host you in my research laboratory at St. John's University, NY. With your exceptional diligence, curiosity and eagerness to learn the novel formulation technologies, you clearly justified your selection for such prestigious fellowship.

During your 6 months of research exposure in my group, you have successfully contributed to multiple research projects. I am glad we were able to train you with advanced formulation technologies like hot melt extrusion, 3D printing and nanosuspension. You quickly learned various solid state and nanoformulation characterization techniques and appropriately used for systematic evaluation of your formulations. You also received brief exposure of cancer cell culture assay. It is really commendable that you were able to complete the research project aimed to optimize nanosuspension of a repurposed drug molecule within limited time frame. Your paper entitled "Development of rapidly soluble mebendazole nanosuspension for colorectal cancer" is currently under review in Journal of drug delivery science and technology. Overall, you received a comprehensive training in the field of cancer drug delivery and in vitro testing as specified in your fellowship.

On a personal note, you have a very pleasant and collegial personality. My graduate students had a great time with you in my lab. I am thankful for your help in teaching them HPLC method development for various drug molecules.

I wish you a good luck for your academic progression and promotion. I am very confident that you will be a very productive independent investigator in future.

Hello Veteran Evaluators,

Greetings from the New team of SIH-22!

We are reaching out to you in our times of need.

We are told that you have participated in previous editions of SIH as evaluators and have been bankable.

We started allocating the ideas to people who volunteered from the industry this year and the last date was 31st May for submission. To our surprise, many informed us after the deadline that they are not able to take it up.

And if a friend in need is a friend indeed stands true, we are turning towards you in our times of need with the hope you would bail us out.

We have allocated 25-30 ideas to you today, and each idea could take around ten min of your time for evaluation. We understand this is extremely short notice but we request you to finish these by Monday 6th June EOD. If you can finish by tomorrow then would be incredible.

Some PPTs may not open and might show you Error. Please read the description provided by the team and assess them on that basis.

To,
Dr. Darshana Vithalani,
Founder, Divyathha Consultation

Greetings from i-Hub Gujarat!

We at the Government of Gujarat are developing a holistic innovation & start-up ecosystem involving all the possible stakeholders. Gujarat government gives INR 200 Cr to support early-stage student innovators and startups to develop their prototypes and venture into creative projects. The Education Department has institutionalized the Student Startup & Innovation Policy (SSIP) which aims to create an integrated, state-wide, University-based innovation ecosystem to support the innovations and ideas of young students and provide a conducive environment for the optimum harnessing of their creative pursuit.

To give further momentum to the startup ecosystem of Gujarat, Gujarat Student Startup and Innovation Hub (i-Hub) is established as a flagship nodal agency by the State Education Department. i-Hub is envisioned to be a centre for all startup stakeholders to develop an end-to-end innovation and entrepreneurial ecosystem in Gujarat. At present, i-Hub is nurturing 100+ startups, supporting them with all the startup support verticals viz. co-working space, funding, networking opportunities, mentoring, capacity building programs and infrastructural support. We extend startup support right from the ideation stage to the growth stage hand-holding startups from the beginning of their startup journey till they are ready to accelerate into the market with their ventures.

Among various flagship programs at i-Hub, Startup Sathi is one such initiative in which we engage and leverage noted industry persons across domains and regions and engage them with Startups through i-Hub. Looking at your deep expertise and experience, we would be delighted to have you on board as a "Startup Sathi" so that they can guide and mentor Startups of their area of interest and be a part of their success stories in the time to come.

It is desired that every Startup Saathi/mentor try to spare an hour per startup in a month and guide them virtually/physically as and when possible. Each mentor will be assigned a maximum of three startups at a time. It is desired that the mentor-mentee interaction has to be continued with each startup for a minimum of six months so that the startup can substantially benefit. The contribution of mentors will be acknowledged and most contributing mentors will be recognised at the annual Startup Prashansa (a flagship initiative to acknowledge the efforts made by individuals to boost the state startup ecosystem) under the Gujarat Education department at the state level.

We will share a list of startups along with their details and based on your preference we will connect suitable startups with you who could significantly benefit from your guidance.

Should you require any further information, you can contact Mr Mitesh Solanki, +91 9510273113, mitesh@ihubgujarat.in. Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

All contributions to IGI Global publications must undergo a rigorous, double blind, peer review by a minimum of three noted IT industry professionals/academicians before a contribution is selected to appear in any IGI Global book or journal. Our editors are given detailed instructions in their "Guide to Editing an IGI Global Book" on setting up the review process and the editor must complete various progress reports and submit to their IGI Global Development Editor throughout the process. This is very important for the assurance of quality. When reviewers are sent chapters/articles to review, they are provided an in-depth review form for completion in order to help in evaluating the submission and to ensure standardization across all reviews.

Since IGI Global was founded in 1987, the high standards followed by our publication editors and international editorial review boards, have allowed the company to be recognized as a leader in information science and technology research publications around the world. It is clearly evident that without detailed reviews by talented professionals such as Nehal Dave IGI Global would not own this reputation.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any further clarification about IGI Global quality standards.

Sincerely,
